Too Complicated Of A Scent I was looking for a scent of pines and spruces. This fragrance is so heavily overloaded with other fra simple fragrances such as spruce and eucalyptus without all of the other over layers.

H. Julia, it is true that our scents are not composed like essential alia, but like perfumes with a bit more complex structure (top, middle, and bas hear that you didn't love Festive Fir, but if you are looking for a simple fresh scent, Fresh Eucalyptus may be a good choice!
